

Co-sponsors: Los Angeles County Office of AIDS Programs & Policies; West Hollywood Exchange Network; Homeless Health Care Los Angeles; Los Angeles Alcohol & Drug Program Administration; San Diego Department of Health, STD & Hepatitis Prevention Program; City of Los Angeles AIDS Coordinator's Office; L.A. Mission; New Directions Inc.; JWCH Institute Inc.; Minority AIDS Project; and Asian Pacific AIDS Intervention Team present:

Hepatitis C and Hepatitis C/HIV Co-infection Your Future, Your Choices

A Discussion of HCV/HIV Co-infection

Epidemiology: who has HCV & how many
What is Hepatitis C and its impact
Transmission routes of HCV & prevention
How does HAART (HIV-therapy) affect the liver
Special coinfection treatment issues
Stages of HCV progression
History of treating HCV
Treatment & Care: diagnostic tests, biopsy, liver enzymes
Radiologic testing: MRI, ultrasound
When to begin HCV therapy
Current HCV treatment: pegylated interferon & ribavirin
Treatment side effects
Management of side effects

Speaker:

Jules Levin, Executive Director/Founder, NATAP

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2003 FROM 9AM TO 12:30PM

St. Anne's Maternity Hospital

155 N. Occidental Boulevard

Los Angeles, CA 90026

Continuing education credit for addiction professionals is available

Breakfast will be provided

A raffle will follow the presentation

Seating is limited.

To reserve your seat you can:

Call: 1-888-26-NATAP (62827)

Fax: (212) 219- 8473

Mail to: NATAP
580 Broadway, Suite 1010
New York, NY 10012

Please Print Clearly

12-12-03HIV/HCV

Your Name _____

Mailing Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Work Phone _____ Home _____

Organization (if applicable) _____

Profession _____

Email _____ Fax _____